CHINESE REPUBLIC WILL BE RECOGNIZED BY UNCLE SAMUEL

TIME NOW RIPE, SAYS PRESIDENT

Will Recognize the Chinese Republic at An Early Date.

SETS PACE FOR THE POWERS

Action the Practical Result of the Repudiation by the President of the Loan Proposition Engineered by the Great Powers—Overthrow of Knox Policy Opens the Way For Recognition of the Oriental Republic.

Washington, March 20. — Recognition of the Chinese republic at an early date will be the practical result of the repudiation by President Wilson of the six-power loan project.

The withdrawal of the United States from participation in the loan negotiations is regarded by those responsible for the overthrow of the Knox policy as removing the chief obstacle which has prevented the recognition of China by the United States. While the United States has not been actually prohibited from taking this action in favor of the Chinese republic at any time within the last 18 months, to have done so would have been in violation of the spirit of the agreement among the powers.

As recently as last fall there was an "exchange of views" among the powers which resulted in a general understanding that no one of them would recognize the new republic independently. It was understood that all were to wait until there was a general agreement or the proper time had come for such recognition.

It is now contended by those in sympathy with President Wilson's repudiation of the entire affair that the recognition of the Chinese government would have been delayed indefinitely under this gentlemen's agreement among the powers.

There is no question about the friendly disposition of the American people toward the new government in China, and President Wilson in his statement of repudiation has reflected this popular sympathy for the Chinese. He also is convinced that traditional principles of the United States and its long standing intimate relations with China require that this government manifest its kindly feelings by the practical act of recognition of the new republic.

Buckeye Youth A Victim Of Waters

Ithaca, N. Y., March 20. — Walter Scott Richards of Cortland, Trumbull county, Ohio, a Cornell student, was drowned about 20 feet north of the lighthouse pier at the head of Cayuga lake. The spot where he drowned was in a channel recently excavated. A few yards on either side would have brought him to shallow water, where he could have walked ashore, but he didn't know anything about the lake at this point. After swimming a short distance he became numbed and sank. His body was recovered. Richards and George K. Foye of Marion, O., a senior and a fraternity brother, went canoeing and landed at the pier, and Foye got out of the canoe. Richards pushed off into the lake and he sought to turn the canoe around, but a stiff breeze was blowing and the canoe overturned. Richards was the photographic editor of the Cornellian, the college annual, and a member of the Delta Chi fraternity.

FALCONIO THE MAN

Illness of Pius X Starts Gossip as to His Probable Successor.

Paris, March 20.—Rumors which reached here from Rome in regard to the illness of Pope Pius X started gossip as to his possible successor. The name most frequently mentioned is that of Cardinal Falconio. A prominent Catholic prelate said "Cardinal Falconio is the man above all others who would satisfy the clergy and laity. He is an Italian, although a naturalized American citizen and a diplomat."

Brokerage Office Is Raided.

Cleveland, O., March 20. — County Prosecutor Lochert headed a raid upon John Mills' brokerage office. Mills, E. E. Neman and Harry Hughes were arrested on charges of violating the bucketshop law.

LITTLE OLD WOMAN PROPHETESS OF EVIL.

New York, March 20.—Mrs. Mary Finke walked into the Union Market police station and asked Lieutenant Thompson as a particular favor to notify President Wilson that he is to be assassinated on March 25. Speaking in broken English, but calmly, the little old woman said the spirits had told her all about it. The spirits, she said, all tell her everything that is to happen of importance. They told her that President McKinley was to be assassinated at Buffalo and she had written to him about it, but as the letter was in German she thought perhaps it could not be understood. "I was told about the wars and the Titanic disaster," she said.

REDEEM PROMISES DEMANDS WOODROW

WILSON TO AID TARIFF FARMERS

Believes Bill Should Be Treated As a Party Measure.

WANTS PLEDGES CARRIED OUT

Ways and Means Committee of the House and the Senate Finance Committee to Work On the Bill in Joint Conference — Struggle Anticipated Over the Wool and Sugar Schedules in the Senate.

Washington, March 20. — President Wilson will confer frequently with members of the house and senate in the president's room at the Capitol during the extra session of congress. The president intends to make himself as accessible as possible to members of congress on those days when tariff legislation will have reached its most important development. He will go to the Capitol in a spirit of friendly co-operation, there to consult with Democrats and Republicans alike on the progress of legislation. He believes, however, that he should go to the Capitol as party leader. He has always said that the president of the United States was the elected leader of his party, and that he particularly was charged by the people with the carrying out of party pledges. Mr. Wilson believes the tariff bill should be treated as a party measure.

The announcement that the finance committee of the senate and the ways and means committee of the house will work on the tariff bill in joint conference, consulting the president often, is in line with his idea that the

© by American Press Association.

Mr. Davies, who is a Wisconsin man, has accepted the post of assistant to Secretary of War Garrison. He will not take office for a month or so. He managed Wilson's campaign in the west.

Democratic leaders in congress should draft a tariff bill which should stand or fall on its merits, both in congress and before the country. He believes in enforcing party discipline, and after the leaders have approved the tariff bill he will make every effort to obtain its passage in both houses without material alteration.

A short conference between the president and Chairman Simmons of the senate finance committee, followed by a longer conference between a senate subcommittee and Chairman Underwood of the house ways and means committee, laid the groundwork for a series of three-cornered conferences that are to follow before the tariff revision bills are presented to the house in April.

As a result of the discussions it was said by Mr. Underwood and Senator Simmons that the two houses of congress practically will be agreed upon the details of tariff revision before the bills reach the house, and that the opinions and desires of President Wilson also will have been fully considered. The fight over free wool, already decided by the committee on ways and means in favor of a 15 per cent duty, will recur in the senate, and the reduction of the sugar tariff will also be a stumbling block there.

Musica Family Is Jailed For Fraud

HELD AT NEW ORLEANS; WANTED IN NEW YORK

Father and Sons Seized For Alleged $1,000,000 Fraud.

New Orleans, March 20.—Five of the Musica family of New York, three male members who are charged with defrauding New York and foreign banks out of $1,000,000, were arrested here as they were about to sail for Panama. In the clothes of Antonio Musica and his three sons, George, Arthur and Philip, the police found $80,000 in currency, and from the corner of Grace Musica, a daughter, $18,000 in large bills was extracted. Grace and her sister Louise are held as material witnesses.

When the party was being taken from the wharf to the central police station the elder Musica tried to get a revolver from Philip, and when a detective interfered the young man exclaimed: "No; I won't give up. I am going to kill myself before I get to police headquarters." It was necessary for the officers to take the weapon away from the young man by force.

Antonio Musica and his three sons are charged with defrauding banks through irregular dealings as hair goods importers. The father said failure of three large foreign hair goods concerns was responsible for his firm's embarrassment. He said his company owed these firms approximately $300,000, which he could not pay, so he fled with his family for Panama.

Catholic Church Burned.

Wooster, O., March 20.—Fire gutted St. Mary's Roman Catholic church. It is believed the blaze originated from sparks from a railroad locomotive. The loss is $30,000. The structure was built in 1845 and was one of the city's landmarks.

CHANGES DRAW THE FANGS OF MEASURE

BIGELOW SAVES BILL FROM DEATH

Offers Amendment to His Street Railway Proposition.

REPLACED ON THE CALENDAR

Concession Offered by the Author to Allow Damages to Dissenting Property Owners—House Quickly Ratifies 1913 Appropriation Measure. Blacklist Bill Meets Unexpected Defeat—Doings of the Assembly.

Columbus, O., March 20.—That the owners of property damaged by the construction of an interurban or street railroad without their consent may recover damages in court from the railway company, was the proposal made by Representative Herbert S. Bigelow of Cincinnati as a final concession in hope of saving from defeat his measure to abolish the principle of the right of property holders to withhold their consent to the use of a street for street railroad transportation.

The Bigelow proposal was made at the end of the second scrimmage over the consent abolition bill. The first ended in defeat by a vote of 49 to 48, the bill lacking 13 votes of a legal majority. The second ended in reconsideration and replacing the measure on the calendar until amendments can be printed.

The Democratic majority of the house split on the question of blacklisting employees. As a result the Vollmer bill, outlawing the blacklist, was killed. The vote to pass it to third reading was 43 to 54. Thirty-six Democrats and six Republicans and one Progressive voted to penalize the use of the blacklist, 35 Democrats, 17 Republicans and two Progressives voted to kill the bill; 21 Democrats and four Republicans did not vote.

Chairman Cowan of the house finance committee performed the rare feat of putting through the house the general appropriation bill for 1913, carrying $6,500,000, not only without having forced into it any amendments not desired by the finance committee, but also without the offering of any amendments by anyone but the chairman. Inquiry by Mr. Kramer of Richmond county whether the bill squeezed the O. N. G., brought from Mr. Kennedy of Allen the statement that the National Guard in the general and partial bills was given as much as it had last year and as much as it asked, but $196,000 less than in 1911, when the militia was called out on account of the Columbus strike and the New-ark riot.

Formal protest against the passage of the Hite market roads tax bill, because it violates the integrity of the Smith 1 per cent tax limit law, was made by Representative John F. Gilson, Republican, of Jefferson.

Criticism of the exclusion of this bill from the tax limit caused the house to refuse to pass the McGuffey bill for a 2-mill tax for building and maintaining turnpikes until it was restricted by amendment to the Smith law limit. It was made an emergency measure. Without such a clause it would be exempt from referendum.

Descendant of Washington's Guardian New York, March 20.—General Peter C. Rust, who was a descendant of George Eskridge, George Washington's guardian, died at Bellevue hospital at the age of 85, following a stroke of paralysis. General Rust was born in Virginia, where his family had been well known. In 1849 he went to California with other gold-seekers and settled. He gained the title of general in the California militia and was at one time a senator in the California legislature.

PICTURE SHOWS BULLET IN BOY'S BRAIN

The above picture, made from an X-ray photograph of the head of Frank Rowan, the 13-year-old son of Mrs. J. E. Rowan, who accidentally shot himself through the head while unloading a 32-caliber revolver at his home on South Fayette street, Wednesday morning, March 12th, shows the location of the bullet in the lad's brain.

The left side of the picture is the front part of the head, and the dark spot on the right side close to the edge of the shadow, is the bullet as it appeared in the X-ray.

A small cross on the left portion of the shadow of the head, indicates where the bullet entered the head, and the course of the bullet is outlined by small dots.

The ball passed through the brain and struck the roof of the skull, turning the ball over and send it crashing downward against the rear part of the skull, where it rests in the occipital region.

The dark shadow in the left corner of the pictures was made by the lad's teeth, the bones about the nose casting little shadow.

Dr. Sherman Leach of Columbus again visited the lad Thursday morning, and predicts his early and complete recovery. He urged against any operation, stating that the ball would not injure the boy's mental powers in any way, and that there was no danger of serious effects if it is left undisturbed.

He mentioned a number of instances where the bullet had been allowed to remain in the head of the patient and early and complete recovery took place. It is pleasing to the lad's friends to know he is all but out of danger.

At present his pulse and respiration are normal, while the partial paralysis of the left arm and shoulder is leaving him.

GREAT CROWDS ARE EXPECTED TO ATTEND COMING HORSE SHOW

Inquiries Coming in Thick and Fast From Many States, and All Surrounding Towns Will Send Large Delegations---Governor Cox Says He Will Attend and His Box Will Occupy Center of the Auditorium.

Horse Show interest is growing apace and the way inquiries about the seat sale are pouring in from out-of-town is amazing. Parties from Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Springfield, Chillicothe, Urbana, Circleville, as well as many other towns, have notified members of the committee to make reservations for them and beyond question the crowd will be one to tax even the big sales pavilion.

Boxes are now being erected, the governor's box immediately over the central entrance, and Governor Cox assured Mr. Charles Allen in a personal interview in Columbus Tuesday that he would be at the show.

While horse show attractions, and mighty good ones, have been secured, it is the show classes and the awards, the magnificent silver trophies, as shown in accompanying cut, which whet the keenest appetite of this horse loving community.

The entries for both the show and the big horse sale which follows, are quite heavy and of unusually high class.

Among the special features which will intersperse the show classes, the one which promises to be the most novel show feature, and is introduced for the first time in this vicinity, will be an exhibition in rope spinning by Mr. Harry Hill, of Colorado Springs, Colo., assisted by Mrs. Hill.

Another attractive exhibition will be in high jumping, this exhibition put on by Cincinnati talent.

The Wallace Vocal and Instrumental orchestra, of 9 pieces, and an Italian harp, will play throughout both afternoon and evening shows. This orchestra is exceedingly popular with race meets all over the country and was in constant demand last season, playing for the horse show at the place of the late millionaire, Harriman, in Goshen, N. Y., and many other noted shows and meets.

The Horse Show judges are men of prominence, Walter Palmer, of Ottawa, Ill., a member of the Government Board of Commissions having in charge the provision of government remounts; H. J. Kline, of Cleveland, secretary of the American Trotting Horse Breeders' Association and secretary of the Grand Circuit association, and H. D. Shephard, of Columbus, secretary Grand Circuit association.

Prof. Plumb, in charge of the Ohio State university of Animal Husbandry department, expects to bring down a delegation of O. S. U. students.

All arrangements are moving along splendidly and the seat sale opens Saturday. The afternoon show will begin at 1:30 and the evening performance at 7:30 on Monday, March 31st.

Wants Divorce Man Is in Jail

Rankin & Rankin, representing Mrs. Della Ziegler, filed action in the Common Pleas court Wednesday evening, in which the plaintiff asks divorce and alimony from Harry Ziegler, and the custody of their 20-months old child.

The couple were married in Springfield, August 21, 1909, and she charges her husband with extreme cruelty, and states that during December, 1912, he threatened her with death, and did strike and injure her, whereupon she left him and went to the home of her parents near Good Hope, where she remained.

She further charges that one day the defendant, while intoxicated, called at the home of her parents, and drew a revolver, threatening her life and that she believes he would have killed her if others had not interfered and disarmed him.

Ziegler is still confined in the county jail under indictment for carrying concealed weapons, as he was arrested at the time of the trouble and bound over to the grand jury.

Poetry For Today

BLOSSOMING SPRING.

Now fades the last long streak of snow,
Now burgeons every maze of quick
About the flowering squares, and thick
By ash roots the violets blow.
Now rings the woodland loud and long,
The distance takes a lovelier hue,
And drown'd in yonder living blue
The lark becomes a sightless song.

Now dance the lights on lawn and lea,
The flocks are whiter down the vale
And milkier every milky sail.

On winding stream or distant sea;
Where now the seaweed pipes, or dives
In yonder gleaming gleam, and fly
The happy birds, that change their sky
To build and brood; that live their lives.

From land to land; and in my breast
Spring wakens too; and my regret
Becomes an April violet,
And buds and blossoms like the rest.
—Alfred, Lord Tennyson.

B. Nash, 18 month; Marietta Bereman, 12 months; E. B. Champlin, 24 months; B. F. Atlee, 12 months, all of Washington. W. E. Borden and Mary Doyle, of Martinsburg.

An original young darkey living with a prominent family up-town was induced by a mischievous young lady to make an April fool joke on a friend of hers a certain irritable young captain. The aforesaid young darkey was instructed to proceed to the quarters of the captain and in an excited manner ask if he had heard of that awful scrape which had recently occurred on the pike. As a natural consequence the captain's curiosity would be excited and he would immediately inquire as to the nature of the difficulty to which the young Africa was to promptly answer: "A cow has just scraped her head on the fence." With all confidence in his ability to remember instructions, Mr. Darkey rushes frantically into the captain's presence, exclaiming, "Captain, is you heerd of dat awful rumpus on the pike?" "What rumpus?" inquired the captain. "Why, captain," exclaimed the darkey in ecstasy over the prompt manner in which his bait had been taken, "a cow hurt herself."

The traction line between South Charleston and South Solon, about left at once for Findlay where he by Mr. Baker this summer, it is said. The village of Hartville, the center of the onion growing industry, is just now in the midst of an unhappy and fearful work. Onions this year were so plentiful, the price so poor that they were a drug on the market and it did not pay the growers to ship them. The consequence, 15,000 bushels are being scattered over the fields and plowed under for fertilizer.

A $20,000 stock company has been formed by the business men of Chillicothe for the purpose of establishing a Union Merchants' General Delivery system. Twenty wagons will be placed on the streets to begin with, the wagons to be uniform in color and the drivers to be in livery.

There Is Danger In This Age of Machinery

By Dr. HENRY VAN DYKE, Poet, Essayist and Critic

IT is wonderful, it is exciting, it is in some respects exceedingly convenient, to live in an age of machinery.

But there is the transformation which the coming of all these machines has wrought in the FIELD OF HUMAN LABOR to consider. Tools have become more perfect, more costly, more efficient. Naturally they have taken the place of human workers by increasing the amount of work which a pair of hands can perform. You cannot help. You can't stop it. We must take it into account.

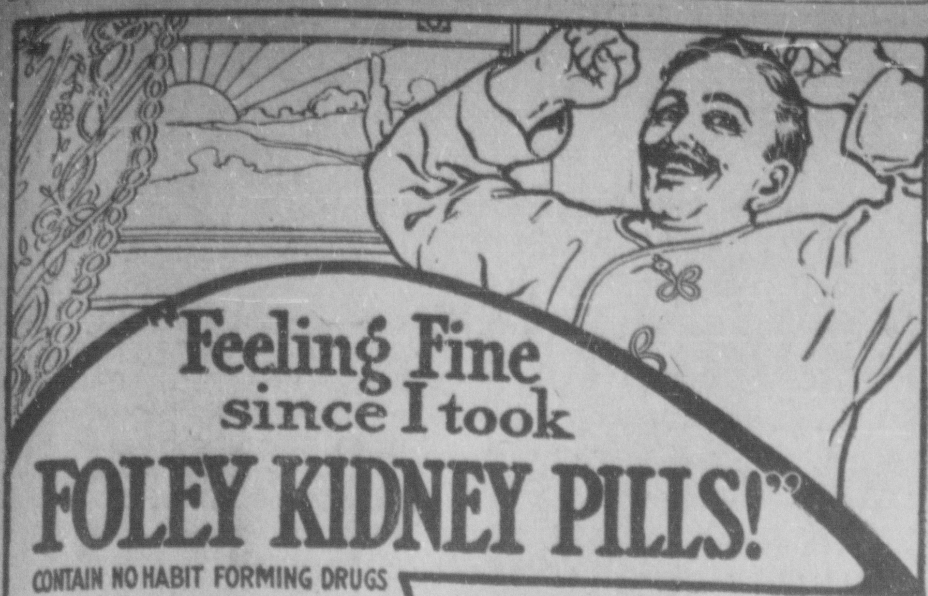

THE AGE OF MACHINERY HAS BROUGHT WITH IT AT LEAST THE FIRST WARNINGS OF A PHYSICAL DETERIORATION IN LARGE CLASSES OF MANKIND.

From cities of England, from France, from Italy, from Germany, comes the same complaint of a decline in the STAMINA OF THE RACE. In our American cities competent observers report disquieting signs. You must go BACK IN THE COUNTRY AND FAR BACK, TOO, AMONG THE MOUNTAINS AND THE FORESTS and the great plains to find men who can stand everything and take care of themselves on a desert island.

There is a real danger of our BECOMING DEPENDENT upon the things that have been invented to help us.

How else shall we account for the INCREASE OF NERVOUS DISEASES AND OF INSANITY all over the world? MAN LOSES HIS BALANCE, the poise of his threefold nature amid his whirling machinery. He is caught by his own engines and maimed or shattered.

But the greatest peril of an age of machinery is the temptation to idolatry of the machine.

Easter Display Of Great Beauty

Hundreds have visited the Buck floral gardens this week and enjoyed the wealth of Eastern bloom which is now in its full glory.

It is the freely expressed opinion that these gardens, a matter of great pride in Washington, have never been so luxuriant, but that may be partly because they never had the equipment for such a display before.

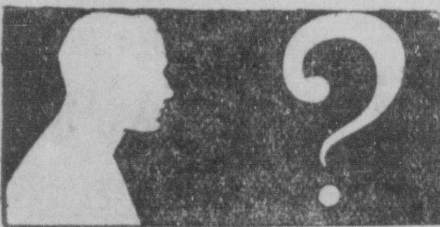

With nine immense green houses, every one is full of bloom. Two houses, 125 feet long, are devoted to Easter flowers and are the brightest and loveliest of all—tulips, jonquils, hyacinths, daffodils, azaleas, spirea, genestia and most beautiful of all, the pure white ascension lilies and the stately calla, are in riotous bloom.

Over 100 Easter baskets are ready to send out.

While the Buck Easter display at Brown's Drug store Saturday will be one of the finest ever exhibited, the floral gardens in Easter bloom are well worth the effort of a visit.

WILL SETTLE LABOR STRIKES

New Federal Department to Assist Arbitration.

WILSON TO BE NEUTRAL.

Although Secretary is a Union Man. He Will Be Influenced by President and Other Members of the Cabinet. Result of Many Years of Agitation. Expect Good Results.

Washington.—Reconciliation of the troubles between capital and labor was the thought in the mind of congress when it established the department of labor, with representation in the president's cabinet. The principal duty of the secretary of labor will be to act as mediator and to appoint commissioners of conciliation in labor disputes. The government thus proposes to throw its influence toward the attainment of industrial peace.

William B. Wilson of Pennsylvania, the first secretary of labor, was born in Scotland. He came to this country with his parents and began working in the coal mines of Pennsylvania when he was nine years old. When he was eleven years old he was a half member in the Mine Workers' union. He has always been identified with trade union affairs. At the time of his election to congress and for eight years prior thereto he was international secretary and treasurer of the United Mine Workers of America.

The creation of the department of labor is the result of long years of agitation. In 1884, responding to public sentiment, congress established a bureau of labor in the interior department. A department of labor without representation in the cabinet was created in 1888. When the department

© 1913, by American Press Association.

WILLIAM B. WILSON, SECRETARY OF LABOR of commerce and labor was created in 1901 the department of labor was merged with it as a bureau.

The bill creating the new department extends the principle embodied in what is known as the Erdman act. This act authorized the commissioner of labor and the chairman of the interstate commerce commission to act as mediators in cases of differences between railway employers and railway employees. Under this authority peace has been maintained to a large extent in the railroad world for many years. Time and again great strikes have been averted, and efforts have been made repeatedly to extend the scope of the law to all industries of an interstate character. This was done in the recent enactment.

While the secretary of labor is empowered by the law to act as a mediator and to appoint a commissioner to adjust disputes, the language of the authorization is so broad that labor troubles in the future will come directly under the eye of the president and his cabinet in an official way. The secretary of labor will not act without consultation with the president and the other members of the cabinet. Therefore the power of the federal administration will be exerted to maintain peace in all industries of an interstate character.

ADOPT DOUBLE EDGED SWORD

War Department Provides Blade For Striking or Thrusting.

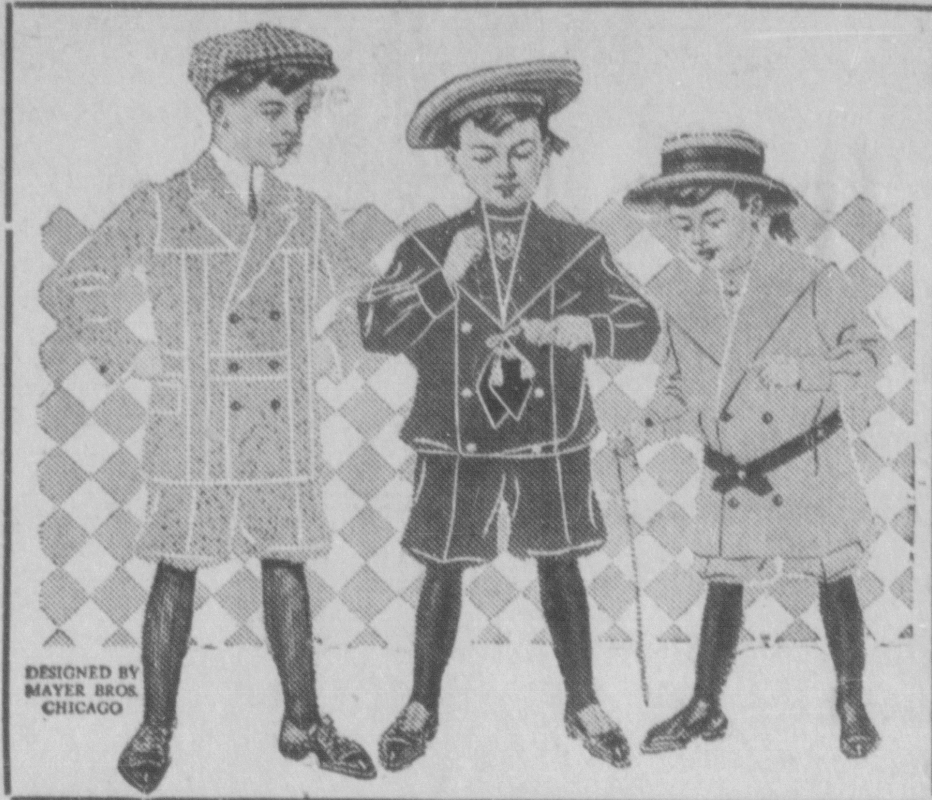

Washington.—A new type of cavalry sword, suitable for either striking or thrusting, has been adopted by the war department.

The blade measures thirty-five inches, is sharp on both sides and tapers to a sharp point. The guard is strongly constructed, so as to afford complete protection to the hand, and also is roughened, so as to prevent slipping.

The sword weighs a trifle more than the present type, but when in the scabbard the combined weight is about two ounces less than the old sword and scabbard.

The officer's scabbard will be of dull finish. The metal portions will be noncorrosive steel.

Novel Bill Is Cast in Hopper

Representative Cagelle, of Hamilton, Monday introduced a bill providing for a commission of three men of good moral character—one a minister, at least two married men, one a father of at least three children, to investigate the relation between the present street dress for girls and women and immorality.

Salaries of the commissioners are to be $2500 per annum. The father of the bill is of the opinion that some radical changes should be made in the present styles of women's dresses.

The girls quit because they were refused wage increases from $1.05 and $1.10 to $1.50 per day.

Made Tom Lawson Hustle for First

The biggest prize coming to Fayette county from the recent bench
show in Columbus was won by English bulls shown by Mayor W. O.
Creath, of Bloomington.

Mayor Creath showed two fine English bulls, one of which, "Laurel Othello"
won second prize in the class where Thomas W. Lawson's $5,000 dog won first prize by a narrow margin, Mr. Creath's dog showing a very close second.

"Laurel Othello" carried off six ribbons in the various classes in the show, and "Laurel Lady," the other animal owned by Mr. Creath, won two ribbons. Both animals are in the front rank with the finest English bulls in the land, and are valued very highly by their owner.

Railroads Will Run Excursions

Most of the railroads will run Sunday excursions during the coming summer, and it is believed that all of the roads touching this city will be included in the number which will run excursions through the week and on Sunday at frequent intervals during the summer months.

At a meeting of the Central Passenger association it was virtually agreed to run excursions. Last year the failure to do so cut down the net earnings of the passenger trains, and the decrease was so great the railroads will gladly follow the old custom of excursions to all points.

Revival Services Still Progressing

With not the least decrease in interest, but with the members of Grace church working as never before, the revival services still continue, and Wednesday night the big church was packed with interested people, the crowd being almost as large as that of Sunday night.

Rev. F. E. Ross preached a strong sermon for the men, pointing to many of the greatest men the world has ever beheld as Christian men, showing how the Christian life made men better and broader, and the great influence for good such men could wield. It was an appeal to the men that made a great many see the question of Christianity in a different light.

In response to the call for those to come forward who wished to live better lives and become Christians, 15 persons, including a gray haired veteran of the Civil war, responded, bringing the total number of decisions during the meetings up to 228.

Preceding the sermon a class of 41
men, women and children were taken into the church on probation.

The personal workers of the church are doing splendid work, and rendering much valuable assistance to the pastor in the services.

New Creamery Company Perfects Organization At Meeting Yesterday

Fayette County Creamery Co.
Elects Officers and Adopts
By-laws—New Plant Will Soon
Be Ready for Manufacturing
Highest Grade of Creamery
Butter.

Stockholders of the Fayette County
Creamery company met at the Probate Judge's office Wednesday afternoon and transacted considerable business of importance, adopting by-laws, electing the various boards and discussing plans.

Earl Barnett was elected temporary chairman of the meeting. E. L. Bush read the articles of incorporation of the company, showing that the concern had incorporated for $10,000
divided up in shares of $100 each.
He explained that while the paid-up capital would be about $7,000 that it did not cost any more to incorporate for $10,000 than for less, and that if the company wished to grow it would have room.

The stock books were opened and every one present subscribed for the amount of stock they had agreed to take. Constitution and by-laws were adopted after some discussion and a few changes. Ed L. Bush, W. W.
Fenner and Louis Perrill constituted the by-laws committee. An annual meeting for the second Thursday in January is provided for in the articles.

The following board of directors
was elected: C. U. Armstrong, Howard Jefferson, E. L. Bush, Edw. Fite, E. B. Hukill, Earl Barnett and Frank Haynes. Barnett was elected temporary chairman of the board, and the following organization was made:
E. B. Hukill, president; Howard Jefferson, vice president; Earl Barnett, secretary; C. U. Armstrong, treasurer.
E. B. Hukill, Earl Barnett and Edw. Fite were chosen as the executive committee.

It is planned to open the new creamery some time during the spring.
The splendid new creamery building
on Columbus avenue and Market St.,
opposite the East End school house,
has been completed, and within the next few days all of the machinery will be installed so that as soon as the milk routes are established and a butter maker employed, the plant will be ready for business.

The Board of Directors will make a trip to Greenfield and Chillicothe one day next week to inspect the creameries at those points. This will be done at the expense of the directors themselves.

Many Converted At Williamsport

The great revival in progress at Williamsport has resulted in nearly 125 conversions, and the remarkable part of the meeting is that most of the converts are men and women of more than 50 years of age.

Business men, professional men,
laborers and their wives and children have "hit the trail", and Williamsport was never before shaken by such a religious wave.

Rev. Crawford, assisted by Rev.

ducting the services.

Call Election On Centralization

The Board of Education of Jeff-

with the Deputy State Supervisors of election, asking for a special bond election on Saturday, March 29. The board desires to issue $18,000 worth of bonds to rebuild and furnish the Centralized school in that township.

It is understood the majority of people in Jefferson township favor the project and the school board feels that the proposition will carry. The amount of the bond issue has been increased from $16,000 to $18,000.—

OBITUARY.

Rebecca Jane, daughter of Way-
mond and Jane Stafford was born Sept. 29, 1846; died March 2, 1913, aged 67 years, 5 months, 1 day.

She was united in marriage to James Coffey. To this union were born five children; three of whom died in infancy. One daughter, Mrs.
Dennis Blackmore, passed away in 1881, and one son, Charles, three grandchildren, one great grand-child and one sister, Mrs. R. M. Waln and two half brothers are left to mourn
her loss.

She united with the M. P. church at White Oak Grove a good many years ago; was also a member of the Ladies' Aid society of that church, and was ever ready to do what she was called upon to do.

She was also a member of Fayette
Temple No. 162, Pythian Sisters.

When we shall assemble in our Temple Hall again, there will be another vacant chair. We shall not meet sister Coffey there any more,
but may we have the beautiful Star of Hope shining on our pathway, that we may meet her beyond the confines of the tomb.

Her illness was of but a few days' duration, but her suffering during that time was intense, and once more we are forcibly reminded that in the midst of life we are in death, and we are reminded of the words, "Be ye therefore ready, for in such an hour
as ye think not the son of man cometh."

She was a loving wife and mother,
and her presence will be missed nowhere more than in the home, but the promise of Christ to these friends is,
"Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."

OBITUARY.

James Robert, son of Patterson and Sarah Coffey was born near Greenfield, Highland Co., Ohio, in 1840,
departed this life March 10, 1913, aged 73 years. He was united in marriage to Rebecca J. Stafford in 1866. To this union were born five children, but all have passed away excepting one son, Charles.

For more than forty-five years
these parents, together trod life's pathway through sunshine and sorrow until on March 2nd, 1913, the wife was called to her reward, and the husband and father was left to fight life's battle alone. He was taken to his son's home in Washington and lovingly cared for, but all that could be done was to no avail. He was afflicted all his life and was never privileged to enjoy church services much, yet he was a firm believer in God's word and tried in every way to exemplify the Golden Rule. He was a loving and affectionate husband and father and nothing was too hard for him to do that would bring happiness and comfort to his loved ones.
He was very industrious and was always willing to lend a helping hand to any one needing it. And no one was ever turned away from his door without food or shelter. He will be greatly missed not only by the relatives but by all that knew him. He leaves to mourn his loss, one son, three grand-children, one great grand-child and one brother, William besides a host of relatives and friends.

Dearest loved one thou hast left us,
And thy loss we deeply feel.
But 'tis God that has bereft us,
And he will all sorrow's heal.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank all who showed their sympathy during the illness and

Evidence Proclaims Dishonest Transactions

CRIMES COMMITTED, SAY STATE SLEUTHS

Former Officials of Trust Company Tell What They Know.

Columbus, O., March 20.—H. W. Backhus, Frank J. Dawson, insurance agent, and Homer L. Rose, banker of Canton, all former officials of the defunct Columbus Savings and Trust company, forged more firmly the links of evidence that are chaining criminal practices to certain state officers and some of the officials of the bank.

Attorneys for the state are now convinced that crime was committed when state moneys were left with the bank, the interest on which went elsewhere than to the state; when funds of the state were deposited in banks, contrary to the provisions of the law; when the records of the bank were defaced and falsified, and when information was allowed to leak from the office of the auditor of state regarding the dates when bank reports were to be called for or examinations made.

They believe that crime was committed when deposits were received at a time when the officials of the bank must have known that it was insolvent.

Backhus, secretary-treasurer of the defunct trust company, made a complete statement of how the bank had beaten the state of Ohio out of thousands of dollars in interest money on state funds under the administration of Former State Treasurer I. B. Cameron, who was also an officer of the bank. From 1902 to 1905, he admitted, the average daily deposits of state money in the bank on which no interest was paid the state amounted to $100,000 and $125,000, and that the deposits were in cash.

Neck Broken.

Lancaster, O., March 20.—Alva Bobo, 27, was killed at his home, six miles west of here, when a limb from a tree which he was trimming fell, striking and breaking his neck.

NEW KING PRESENT

Religious Ceremonies Held Over the Body of George of Greece.

Salonica, March 20.—The body of the slain King George of Greece, after embalming, was moved from the hospital to the palace. Christian and Mussulman, civilian and soldier, Crete and Greek, thronged the streets. The procession passed the spot where King George was shot down.

The body will very probably be buried in the mausoleum which he built on one of the hills of Tatoi, Greece, here he used to spend the summer.

The religious ceremonies were over when King Constantine arrived. He hastened directly to the palace and met his brother Nicholas. The king fell on his brother's neck, sobbing. After he had recovered his composure he was led past the body of his father.

Pittsburg Player Badly Hurt.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 20.—Bobby Byrne, third baseman for the Pittsburg Nationals, was struck on the head by a pitched ball by "Smoky" Joe Wood of the Boston Americans, knocked unconscious and his condition is regarded as serious. It will be several days before physicians can determine whether he will be able to play ball again. The score was: Boston 7, Pittsburg 2.

LOST DIAMONDS AND PEARLS

Boston Woman Initiates Search For Rare Gems.

New York, March 20.—Search is being made here and in Philadelphia for jewelry of unusual value lost by a Boston woman customer of a big Philadelphia jewelry company, on a train somewhere between Boston and Philadelphia. Mounted in the lost jewelry are more than 350 diamonds and more than twice that number of pearls. The search for the missing jewelry has been placed in the hands of J. E. Caldwell & Company of Philadelphia. The identity of the owner of the jewelry was not made known.

Thaw's Attorneys Protest.

White Plains, N. Y., March 20.—The allegations that attendants at Matteawan asylum are now used as spies to watch every movement of attorneys for Harry Thaw, and that it was impossible to confer privately with the patient, was the basis of an appeal to Justice Tompkins in the supreme court here for an order allowing Thaw to have private consultation with his attorneys.

Chicago Publisher Ill.

New York, March 20.—H. H. Kohl-saat, the Chicago publisher and owner of the Inter Ocean, is at the Holland House, seriously ill. Dr. Allen Carpenter, the house physician, said that Mr. Kohl-saat had a slight hemorrhage of the left side of the brain, though his recovery within two weeks seemed assured if no complications set in.

Abe Attell Comes Back.

New York, March 20.—Abe Attell, former featherweight champion of America, "came back" with a vengeance when he beat Ollie Kirk of St. Louis to a standstill in the third round. Kirk was saved from what appeared to be a sure knockout by the intervention of Referee Kelley. Kirk had been floored twice and was reeling about the ring in a helpless condition, while Attell was raining blows on his neck, jaw and body.

Loses Municipal Suit.

Zanesville, O., March 20.—Judge Frazier decided against C. U. Shryock, who had brought suit to enjoin the school board from selling $80,000 worth of bonds for a school building. Shryock will appeal.

WRECKED BY GALE

Zeppelin Airship Number Fourteen Meets Untimely End.

Berlin, March 20.—The Zeppelin airship No. 14, which the other day made a notable achievement in gun-firing practice, was wrecked at Karlsruhe during a heavy gale. She started on a trip from Baden, but was compelled by a storm to land at Karlsruhe. She anchored successfully, but later on the forepart of the ship broke in two and she was unable to resist the gale. Soldiers held the stern for a long time in a fierce wind, but a late dispatch says the ship is now a complete wreck.

Shot by Madman.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 20.—Joseph Stefinsky, supposedly insane, entered the mayor's office in the city hall and shot Charles E. Lang, a desk sergeant in the police department, who had been on detail to aid in the collection of licenses. Lang was hit four times, in the throat, shoulder-blade, the right side of his chest and the left side. None of the wounds, it is thought, will prove fatal.

Wilson Abolishes Office of Assistant Attorney General.

Washington, March 20.—President Wilson, on recommendation of Attorney General McReynolds, will abolish the office of assistant attorney general, held by a negro Harvard student, W. H. Lewis of Massachusetts, whose resignation to take effect April 1 was accepted recently by the president. Lewis was appointed by President Taft. Many negro lawyers have been seeking the office, which was created by congress during the second Cleveland administration to handle the Indian depredation claims. The claims have been practically disposed of.
